About the funds

When you invest in one of the CFS Enhanced Index Funds – Class A, your money is combined with other investors' money in a managed investment scheme. Each fund is a separate managed investment scheme.

What is a managed investment scheme?

A managed investment scheme (also called a managed fund) pools the money of many individual investors. This money is then professionally managed according to the fund's investment objective. By investing in a managed investment scheme and pooling your money with other investors, you can take advantage of investment opportunities that you may not be able to access as an individual investor.

When you invest in a managed investment scheme, you are allocated a number of 'units' based on the entry unit price at the time you invest. Your units represent the value of your investment, which will change over time as the market value of the assets in the fund rises or falls.

Who are the parties involved?

CFSIL is the responsible entity for each of the funds identified in this PDS.

We have appointed various external investment managers as the investment managers for the funds.

Features and benefits

Professional investment management

CFS' Investments team manages the range of CFS Enhanced Index portfolios. The team has the responsibility and accountability for decisions relating to the construction of the portfolios, including the selection of investment managers and asset allocation. The Investments team assesses the ongoing advice of our investment consultant in relation to the management of the portfolios as well as conducting their own analysis and review of the managers and portfolios.

Index management

We construct a portfolio for you that is diversified across asset classes, combining fundamental and traditional index capabilities.

Diversification

Managed funds can help manage investment risk by spreading your money across different investments. This approach is called diversification. Multi-sector portfolios provide a convenient and simple way of diversifying your investment across different asset classes in one single fund.

Investment information

How the funds are managed

We have an investment management agreement in place with the investment managers as part of our arrangement to outsource investment management of each of the funds. The agreement sets out how money should be invested. It may specify an appropriate benchmark, acceptable investments and investment ranges for investment management.

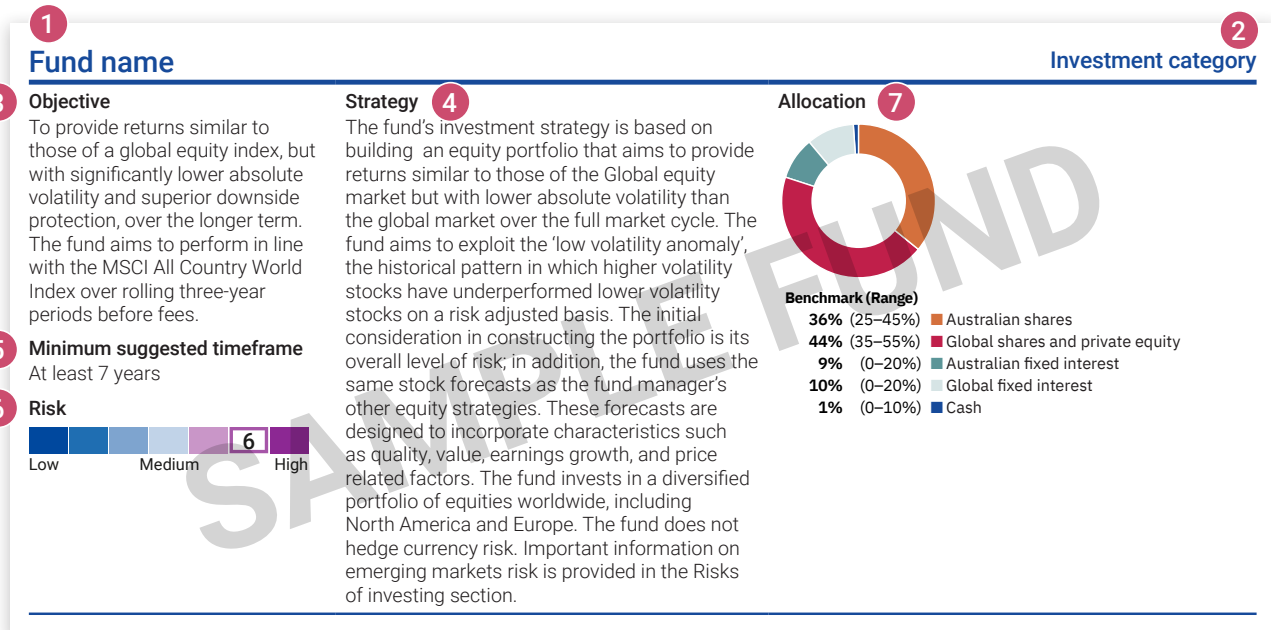

Appointed investment managers are subject to initial and ongoing reviews to ensure they can meet their obligations under the investment management agreement. They are required to certify and report to us on certain obligations under the investment management agreement. We also monitor the performance of the investment manager.

How we construct the CFS Enhanced Index Funds – Class A¹

Australian and global share investments are managed with a 'diversified alpha' approach, aiming to have more consistent returns relative to the market capitalisation indices for these asset classes. Australian and global small companies, as well as Emerging Markets investments are also managed using the value orientated approach. Global property and infrastructure securities are managed using traditional index methods and against market weighted indices. Fixed interest is managed using a combination of traditional index methods against market weighted indices and an enhanced strategy that aims to generate excess returns using a highly risk aware approach. Global fixed interest includes both government bonds managed on a traditional index basis and a broadly diversified portfolio of credit securities.

Understanding the fund information

A fund information table, such as the example below, provides investment information about each fund.

An explanation of each section of the fund information table is provided below.

- 1 Fund name This is the fund name.
- 2 Investment category The investment category is designed to be a guide to the typical range of assets in which the fund generally invests. There are no mandatory or standard industry investment categories, so investors should always read the full details about a fund. Refer to the table below for the investment category definitions for the funds.

¹ From time to time, including at the issue date of this PDS, actual manager allocation may vary from the strategic manager allocation. We may change managers or allocations to individual managers without prior notice to investors.

Investment category	Description
Conservative	Funds with between 21–40% invested in growth assets and 60–79% in defensive assets
Moderate	Funds with between 41–60% invested in growth assets and 40–59% in defensive assets
Growth	Funds with between 61–80% invested in growth assets and 20–39% in defensive assets
High growth	Funds with between 81–100% invested in growth assets and 0–19% in defensive assets

3 Objective The fund's overall objective and the term in which the investment manager aims to achieve it.

4 Strategy Describes the overall strategy of the fund and how money within the fund is invested.

5 Minimum suggested timeframe Each fund has a minimum suggested timeframe. Investment professionals will have differing views about the minimum investment period you should hold various investments, and your own personal circumstances will also affect your decision. Your financial adviser can help you determine your investment timeframe.

If you are mainly concerned about protecting your capital over a relatively short period of time, then a secure, cash-based investment may be the most suitable. However, if you want the value of your investment to increase over a longer period, then growth assets like shares and property are likely to feature prominently in your investment portfolio.

6 Risk band We have adopted the Standard Risk Measure (SRM), which is based on industry guidance to allow investors to compare funds that are expected to deliver a similar number of negative annual returns over any 20-year period (as outlined in the table on the right). The SRM for each fund is also a measure of the risk objective of the expected variability of the return of the fund.

The SRM is not a complete assessment of all forms of investment risk; for instance, it does not detail what the size of a negative return could be or the potential for a positive return to be less than an investor may require to meet their objectives.

Further, it does not take into account the impact of administration fees and tax on the likelihood of a negative return.

Investors should still ensure they are comfortable with the risks and potential losses associated with their chosen fund(s).

Risk band	Risk label	Estimated number of negative annual returns over any 20-year period
1	Very low	Less than 0.5
2	Low	0.5 to less than 1
3	Low to Medium	1 to less than 2
4	Medium	2 to less than 3
5	Medium to High	3 to less than 4
6	High	4 to less than 6
7	Very high	6 or greater

7 Allocation The asset allocation refers to the proportion of a fund that is invested in each asset class such as shares, property securities, fixed interest and cash. The asset allocation will vary at different points in time. The benchmark allocation (also known as strategic asset allocation) reflects the proportion of each asset class that an investment manager aims to hold within the fund. The range reflects the minimum and maximum amount that may be held in each asset class at any point in time.

You should regularly review your investment decision with your financial adviser because your investment needs or market conditions may change over time. The minimum suggested investment timeframe and SRM should not be considered personal advice.

Additional investment information

Do the funds borrow?

The funds do not borrow except for short-term arrangements for settlement purposes or if an emergency or extraordinary situation arises.

Borrowing can only occur in line with a fund's investment strategy. If a fund borrows, this is detailed in the strategy of the fund.

Your investment and labour standards or environmental, social or ethical considerations

Except as disclosed below, as the Responsible Entity, we don't specifically take into account labour standards or environmental, social or ethical considerations for the purpose of selecting, retaining or realising the funds. We do not directly manage the investments however we do have a robust governance process for assessing the capabilities of each investment manager. This process includes consideration of an investment manager's approach to assessing the effect that climate change and environmental, social, governance (ESG) issues may have on the investments of each fund.

Each investment manager may have its own policy on the extent to which labour standards or environmental, social or ethical considerations are taken into account in their investment process and some funds do take one or more of these factors into account.

Due to the labour, environmental and social risks associated with the production of tobacco and manufacture of controversial weapons², we do not allow investment managers to invest in securities issued by companies who operate in these industries. Whilst we make every endeavour to exclude these companies, there may, from time to time, be a small level of unintended exposure due to lack of data, corporate activity, indirect exposure or exposure through index derivatives.

What investments can the funds hold?

The Constitution of each fund allows us a great deal of discretion about what investments can be held. The strategy of each fund outlines the intended investments. If we decide to change, we will advise you as soon as is practical.

We may need to comply with substantial holding or other restrictions on individual securities from time to time, for example, if holdings within an individual security exceed a certain percentage. The restriction will be lifted if and when capacity becomes available.

What is the meaning of allocation?

Each fund invests in direct assets according to the fund's objectives. Allocation refers to how a fund is ultimately invested in other funds, direct assets, sectors and/or pools. The day-to-day allocations may vary slightly from those shown.

A reference to Australian shares or companies may include, for example, units in trusts listed on the ASX and/or investments in companies listed on an overseas stock exchange if they are also listed on the ASX. Within their allocations to listed securities, a fund may purchase unlisted securities on the basis that the securities will list in the future.

Further details on the securities a fund can hold are outlined in the Strategy and Allocation sections of the relevant fund information table.

Inter-funding

We may invest directly or indirectly in other managed investment schemes managed by us to gain exposure and administrative efficiencies.

Changes to the funds

CFSIL may, without prior notice to investors, change the investment objective and/or strategy; add, close or terminate a fund; or change an investment manager.

Any change would be considered in light of the potential negative or positive impact on investors.

We will notify existing investors in affected funds of any material change as soon as practicable.

Updated information that is not materially adverse can be obtained by calling Investor Services on 13 13 36 or by visiting cfs.com.au/product-updates. A paper copy of the updated information will be provided free of charge on request.

Are there any other benefits to CFSIL?

The funds receive banking and treasury-related services from CBA in the normal course of business and pay normal commercial fees for them. We may derive monetary or administrative benefits from CBA as a consequence of maintaining bank accounts with CBA and through performing administration services for CBA products.

² Controversial weapons include: chemical and biological weapons, cluster munitions, antipersonnel landmines, depleted uranium ammunition, non-detectable fragments, incendiary weapons and blinding lasers.

Risks of investing

What is risk?

Understanding investment risk is the key to successfully developing your investment strategy. Before you consider your investment strategy, it is important to understand that:

- all investments are subject to risk
- there may be loss of principal, capital or earnings
- different strategies carry different levels of risk depending on the assets that make up the strategy
- assets with the highest long-term returns may also carry the highest level of short-term risk.

When considering your investment, it is important to understand that:

- the value of funds will go up and down
- returns are not guaranteed
- you may lose money
- previous returns don't predict future performance
- laws affecting investments may change
- the appropriate level of risk for you will vary depending on your age, investment timeframe, where other parts of your money are invested and how comfortable you are with the possibility of losing some of your investment in some years.

Different investments perform differently over time. Investments that have provided higher returns over the longer term have also tended to produce a wider range of returns. These investments are generally described as more risky, as there is a higher chance of losing money, but they can also give you a better chance of achieving your long-term objectives. Investments that have provided more stable returns are considered less risky, but they may not provide sufficient long-term returns for you to achieve your long-term goals. Selecting the investments that best match your investment needs and timeframe is crucial in managing this risk.

Your financial adviser can help you understand investment risk and design an investment strategy that is right for you.

General investment risks

Market risk

Investment returns are influenced by the performance of the market as a whole. This means that your investments can be affected by factors such as changes in interest rates, investor sentiment and global events, depending on which markets or asset classes you invest in and the timeframe you are considering.

Security and investment-specific risk

Individual securities like mortgages, shares, fixed interest securities or hybrid securities can be affected by risks that are specific to that investment or that security. For example, the value of a company's shares can be influenced by changes in company management, its business environment or profitability. These risks can also impact on the company's ability to repay its debt.

Management risk

All funds have an investment manager to manage your investments and there is a risk that the investment manager will not perform to expectation. Management risk may arise from the use of financial models by the investment manager to simulate the performance of financial markets. The performance of financial markets may differ to that anticipated by the financial models.

Liquidity risk

Liquidity risk refers to the difficulty in selling an asset for cash quickly without an adverse impact on the price received. Assets such as shares in large listed companies are generally considered liquid, while 'real' assets such as direct property and infrastructure are generally considered illiquid. Under abnormal or difficult market conditions, some normally liquid assets may become illiquid, restricting our ability to sell them and to make withdrawal payments for investors without a potentially significant delay.

Counterparty risk

This is the risk that a party to a transaction such as a swap, foreign currency forward or stock lending fails to meet its obligations such as delivering a borrowed security or settling obligations under a financial contract.

Legal, regulatory and foreign investment risk

This is the risk that any change in taxation, corporate or other relevant laws, regulations or rules may adversely affect your investment. For funds investing in assets outside Australia, your investment may also be adversely impacted by changes in broader economic, social or political factors, regulatory change and legal risks applicable to where the investment is made or regulated.

Environmental, social and governance (ESG) and climate risk

The value of individual securities may be influenced by ESG factors. These risks may be real or perceived and may lead to financial penalties and reputational damage. For example, environmental risks include waste and pollution, resource depletion and land use. Social risks are where the investment may be impacted by social, labour and human rights risks and include health and safety. Governance risks can impact sustainability of an investment and cover business practices such as board diversity and independence, voting procedures, transparency and accountability.

Climate change also poses a risk – not only to the environment, but also to the broader economy and valuation of an investment. Typically, climate change risks can be split between physical and transition risks.

- Physical risks refer to the direct impact that climate change has on our physical environment. For example, a company's revenue may be reduced due to weather events and this may reduce the value of the company's shares.
- Transition risks refer to the much wider set of changes in policy, law, markets, technology and prices that may be needed to address the mitigation and adaptation requirements which are necessary for the transition to a low carbon economy.

Distribution risk

In some circumstances, the frequency or rate of distribution payments may vary or you may not receive a distribution. This is more likely to occur when a fund employs extensive currency hedging or uses derivatives.

Securities lending risk

The funds may lend out or transfer their securities under securities lending transactions. If a fund engages in securities lending, there is a risk that the borrower may become insolvent or otherwise become unable to meet, or refuse to honour, its obligations to return the loaned assets. In this event, the fund could experience delays in recovering assets and/or accessing collateral which may incur a capital loss.

Where a fund invests any collateral it receives as part of the securities lending program, such investments are also subject to the general investment risks, and in some cases credit risk. In addition, some funds may borrow securities under securities lending arrangements as part of their investment or borrowing strategies. A fund that is involved in these strategies is also exposed to short selling risk. Where a fund has been identified as having short selling risk, it will also be exposed to securities lending risk.

Fund-specific risks

Credit risk

Credit risk refers to the risk that a party to a credit transaction fails to meet its obligations, such as defaulting under a mortgage, a mortgage-backed security, a hybrid security, a fixed interest security or a derivative contract. This creates an exposure to underlying borrowers and the financial condition of issuers of these securities.

Currency risk

Investments in global markets or securities which are denominated in foreign currencies give rise to foreign currency exposure. This means that the Australian dollar value of these investments may vary depending on changes in the exchange rate.

Funds which have significant currency risks adopt different currency management strategies. These strategies may include currency hedging, which involves reducing or aiming to remove the impact of currency movements on the value of the investment. Information on the currency management strategy for each fund with a significant currency risk is set out in that fund's strategy description.

Different funds have different currency management strategies; please consult your financial adviser on the best approach for you.

For more information on how currency risk is managed, refer to 'Additional information on fund-specific risks'.

Emerging markets risk

Due to the nature of the investments in emerging markets, there is an increased risk that the political and/or legal framework may change and adversely impact your investments. This could include the ability to sell assets. Funds that invest in global markets may have exposure to emerging markets.

Refer to 'Additional information about emerging markets risk' for further information.

All of the funds are subject to some or all of these risks, which can also vary from time to time. You should consult your financial adviser before making a decision to invest.

Your financial adviser is required to be qualified in understanding the risk and return associated with the wide range of funds available to you and can help you make decisions regarding these funds.

Are there any other risks you should be aware of?

When investing, there is the possibility that your investment goals will not be met. This can happen because of the risks discussed previously. It can also happen if your chosen investment strategy is not aligned to your objectives and investment timeframe.

A guide to your fund risk profile

The main risks which can typically affect a managed fund are outlined in this PDS. In addition to the general investment risks, further fund-specific risks are described. The table below identifies which fund-specific risks the funds typically have exposure to. Note that the table is not exhaustive and is a reference guide only. The relative importance of a risk to a particular fund and whether or not a fund-specific risk is applicable may differ from the table below and change from time to time. Funds can have exposure to a fund-specific risk at or after the date of this issue, and this may not be reflected in the table.

Currency risk

How is currency risk managed?

Changes in the value of the Australian dollar lead to a difference between the foreign currency returns or the value of the global investments held by a fund, and those returns or values expressed in Australian dollars. This is known as foreign currency risk. Currency is not an asset class and therefore does not give a fund either natural long-term growth or an income stream. Rather, currency exposure gives rise to a source of potential volatility of returns – both positive and negative.

Financial instruments can be used to reduce currency risk – this is known as hedging. Hedging is a process where exposure to one currency can be reduced or removed by entering into a transaction that offsets that exposure. If a fund is unhedged, then any foreign currency investments the fund holds are fully exposed to movements in the Australian dollar, which can have a positive or negative effect on the value of the fund.

Whether a fund is hedged or unhedged is disclosed under each fund's strategy. The extent to which a fund is hedged depends on the underlying objectives and risk characteristics of the fund. The extent of hedging may also vary over time depending on the value of the Australian dollar.

The cash asset allocation limits disclosed for a fund that hedges its currency exposure, may not include cash held as collateral to back these hedges.

In funds that hedge currency risk, movements in the Australian dollar can impact the size of distributions that you receive. Generally, a rising Australian dollar will produce gains on the currency hedge and increase the distribution, while a falling Australian dollar will produce currency losses that reduce the distribution.

For more information on how we manage currency risk, refer to the information flyer 'Managing currency risk' available at cfs.com.au/mcr or by calling us on 13 13 36.

Additional information about emerging markets risk

Investing in emerging markets may involve a higher risk than investing in more developed markets.

Emerging market securities may present market, credit, currency, liquidity, legal, political and other risks different from, and potentially greater than, the risks of investing in developed market countries.

For example, companies in emerging markets may not be subject to:

- accounting, auditing and financial reporting standards, practices and disclosure requirements comparable to those applicable to companies in major markets
- the same level of government supervision and regulation of stock exchanges as countries with more advanced securities markets.

Accordingly, certain emerging markets may not afford the same level of investor protection as would apply in more developed jurisdictions. There are also risks that, while existing in all countries, may be higher in emerging markets due to the legal, political, business and social frameworks being less developed than those in more established market economies.

Examples of higher risks include:

- political or social instability (including recession or war)
- institutional manipulation of currency or capital flows
- deflation, inflation, or loss in value of currency, and
- greater sensitivity to interest rates and commodity prices.

As a result, investment returns from emerging market securities are usually more volatile than those from developed markets. This means that there may be large movements in the unit prices of funds that invest in emerging market securities over short or long periods of time.

You should consider whether a fund that invests in emerging market securities is suitable for your portfolio.

Fees and other costs

DID YOU KNOW?

Small differences in both investment performance and fees and costs can have a substantial impact on your long term returns.

For example, total annual fees and costs of 2% of your account balance rather than 1% could reduce your final return by up to 20% over a 30-year period (for example, reduce it from $100,000 to $80,000).

You should consider whether features such as superior investment performance or the provision of better member services justify higher fees and costs.

You may be able to negotiate to pay lower fees.¹ Ask the fund or your financial adviser.

TO FIND OUT MORE

If you would like to find out more, or see the impact of the fees based on your own circumstances, the Australian Securities and Investments Commission (ASIC) Moneysmart website (www.moneysmart.gov.au) has a managed funds fee calculator to help you check out different fee options.

¹ Note: Although we are required by law to include this wording, the fees are not subject to negotiation.

This section shows fees and other costs that you may be charged. These fees and other costs may be deducted from your money, from the returns on your investment or from the assets of the managed investment scheme as a whole.

Taxes are set out in another part of this document.

You should read all the information about fees and other costs because it is important to understand their impact on your investment.

Fees and costs for particular funds are set out in the 'Fees and costs for each fund' table under 'Additional explanation of fees and costs'. These fees do not include any fees that may be charged by the platform operator where an investment is made via a platform product.

Management fees and costs

Management fees and costs include management fees, investment expenses and custody fees. Management fees and costs are deducted from the performance of each fund (i.e. they are not charged directly to your account). These costs may be incurred directly by the fund or within an underlying investment vehicle. They do not include contribution fees, transaction costs, performance fees or additional service fees. The management fees and costs for each fund are an estimate based on the previous financial year. They are expressed as a percentage of each fund's net assets and, together with any applicable buy/sell spreads, are outlined in the 'Fees and costs for each fund' table.

Management fees are the fees payable under the Constitution of a managed investment scheme for the management of the fund. Management fees are calculated from gross assets of the fund. For details of the maximum management fees allowed under the Constitution, refer to 'Increases or alterations to the fees'.

Increases or alterations to the fees

We may vary the fees set out on in the 'Fees and costs for each fund' table at any time at our absolute discretion, without your consent, within the limits prescribed in each fund's Constitution. If the variation is an increase in a fee or charge, we will give you at least 30 days prior written notice.

The Constitution of each fund provides for a maximum management fee of 3.075% p.a.

Note: The maximums are provided for your information and are not the current fees charged. The current fees are shown in the 'Fees and costs for each fund' table.

Transaction costs

Transaction costs are the costs of buying and selling assets directly or indirectly held by a fund and may include brokerage (and other related Broker costs), buy/sell spreads of any underlying funds, settlement costs (including custodian charges on transactions), clearing costs and stamp duty on an investment transaction.

If the amount payable to acquire an investment exceeds the price for which it would be disposed of at that time, the difference is also a transaction cost.

Transaction costs are shown net of amounts recovered by buy/sell spreads charged and are an additional cost where they have not already been recovered by the buy/sell spreads charged.

Transaction costs are an additional cost to you, but no part of a transaction cost (including the buy/sell spread) is paid to us or an investment manager. Transaction costs are usually paid for from the assets directly or indirectly held by a fund at the time of the transaction.

Buy/sell spreads

For most funds, there is a difference between the unit price used to issue and redeem units and the value of the fund's assets. This difference is due to what is called the buy/sell spread.

When you (or any person you have authorised) invest, switch or withdraw all or part of your investment in a fund, we use the buy/sell spread to pay for the transaction costs incurred as a result of the transaction. We use the buy/sell spread to allocate transaction costs to the investor transacting rather than other investors in the fund.

A fund's buy/sell spread is set to reflect the estimated transaction costs the fund will incur as a result of investor transactions. The buy/sell spread that applies to each fund is shown in the 'Fees and costs for each fund' table.

Note: The buy/sell spreads are not paid to us or the investment manager. They are paid to the fund and can be altered at any time, and may be altered without prior notice to you.

Buy/sell spread example: If you make a $50,000 investment in or withdrawal from the CFS Enhanced Index Balanced Fund – Class A (which charges a 0.10% buy spread), you will incur a buy/sell spread of $50.

Transaction costs

Fund name	Gross transaction costs (% p.a.) ¹	–	Costs recovered (% p.a.)	=	Net transaction costs (% p.a.) ¹
CFS Enhanced Index Conservative Fund – Class A	0.08%		0.04%		0.04%
CFS Enhanced Index Diversified Fund – Class A	0.05%		0.02%		0.03%

CFS Enhanced Index Balanced Fund – Class A	0.07%		0.03%		0.04%
CFS Enhanced Index High Growth Fund – Class A	0.03%		0.00%		0.03%

¹ The costs are estimates based on the costs incurred in the previous financial year.

These figures are inclusive of the net effect of GST and any related GST credits. Note: Past costs are not a reliable indicator of future costs. Future costs may differ.

Other operating expenses and abnormal costs

The Constitution for each managed investment scheme allows for the ongoing operating costs, charges, expenses and properly incurred outgoings (such as registry, trust accounting, investment, audit, regulatory, production of the offer documents and taxation advice) and other administration costs, charges and expenses to be paid directly from the fund. Alternatively, the responsible entity is entitled to recover these costs from the fund. The Constitution does not place any limit on these costs that can be paid from each fund.

Abnormal costs (such as costs of unitholder meetings, recovery and realisation of assets, changes to the Constitution and defending or pursuing legal proceedings) are paid out of the fund. These costs are incurred fairly infrequently.

Other transaction costs

Not all transaction costs are funded from the buy/sell spread. One reason for this is that a fund may buy or sell assets even though there have been no investor transactions. Additional transaction costs may be incurred either in the fund or in underlying funds and these will reduce the returns of the fund.

The 'Gross transaction costs' for each fund, for the 12 months to 30 June 2023, the 'Costs recovered' and the 'Net transaction costs' which reduces the returns on the funds are set out in the following table.

Additional information for direct investors

What is paid to your adviser?

The adviser recommending this product may receive from us certain non-monetary benefits allowed under law (soft dollar). Under our obligations pursuant to the Corporations Act 2001 and the Financial Services Council Code of Practice, we keep a record of soft dollar payments which we are entitled to make to dealer groups or advisers.

Dealer groups and other licensees who have an arrangement with us may receive remuneration from us to the extent that it is permitted under law. This remuneration will be paid out of the fees we derive from you that are indicated in the 'Fees and costs for each fund' table in a given year. If these amounts are paid, they are paid by us from our revenue and are not an extra amount paid from the fund, nor are they a further amount you pay. Refer to the CFSIL Financial Services Guide for further information on related party remuneration.

Adviser service fee

You can arrange for the cost of advice services provided by your adviser to be deducted from your account by setting up an adviser service fee (ASF). An ASF can be deducted monthly as an ongoing or fixed term arrangement, or as a one-off arrangement.

Where an ASF is deducted from your account it must be:

- consented to by you in writing and provided to us
- a reasonable amount for the advice and services provided to you.

Your adviser must provide you with a detailed summary of the fees you've agreed to pay.

CFSIL has complete discretion to decline a request to pay adviser service fees, including in order to comply with its obligations under any applicable law.

In the event where the rights of your adviser and/or their licensee have been assigned or novated to another person or entity, the agreed fees and payments of these fees may transfer to that person or entity.

You can generally choose the fund from which your ASF is deducted. Where you do not nominate a fund or the fund you nominate has insufficient funds to pay the fee, we will generally deduct the fee from the most conservative fund you hold at the time the fee is deducted. ASFs are typically deducted within the first five business days of the following month.

One-off adviser service fee

A one-off adviser service fee is charged as a set dollar amount. You can choose to have this one-off fee deducted proportionately from all funds in which you're invested or from one specified fund. Where the fee is deducted from all your funds, it will be based on the investment weighting of your account as at the day the fee is deducted.

Ongoing or fixed term adviser service fee

An ongoing or fixed term adviser service fee, which is deducted monthly, can be charged as:

- a percentage of your account value, and/or
- a set dollar amount.

You can't arrange for both an ongoing and a fixed term fee to be deducted at the same time. Where the fee is charged as a percentage of your account balance, the fee deduction will occur at the beginning of each month and will generally be calculated based on the number of days in the previous month that the fee was applied to your account. If you request for a specific dollar amount to be deducted each month, that amount will thereafter be deducted at the beginning of each month until the fee arrangement ends or is terminated. Pro-rata fee calculations are not applied to fixed dollar fee arrangements. No deduction will occur after the arrangement ends or is terminated, except where the arrangement ends on the last day of the month.

In the event where your adviser changes the ongoing or fixed term adviser service fee arrangement from a percentage of your account balance to a fixed dollar amount or vice versa, this will affect the amount of adviser service fee you pay for that month. However the total adviser service fees for the duration of the fixed dollar fee arrangement with your adviser remain the same.

The following table outlines the calculation of adviser service fees in the month where there is a change of adviser service fee arrangement.

Example – Balance of $50,000 and new ASF request received on 15 June 2023

	ASF changed from fixed dollar amount to percentage of account balance	ASF changed from percentage of account balance to fixed dollar amount
Existing ASF	$30 per month	1% of the account balance p.a.
New ASF	1% of the account balance p.a.	$30 per month
Total ASF deducted for the month of June 2023	$0 for the fixed dollar amount fee for the month of June. Note: no deduction will occur if the arrangement ends or is terminated, except where the arrangement ends on the last day of the month. PLUS $22.22 for the percentage based fees deducted for the 16 days from 15–30 June 2023. Total: $22.22	$20.83 for the percentage based fees deducted for the 15 days from 1–15 June 2023. PLUS $30 for the fixed dollar amount fee for the month of June. Note: no deduction will occur if the arrangement ends or is terminated, except where the arrangement ends on the last day of the month. Total: $50.83

Note: This example is for illustration purposes only and assumes the daily account balance does not change. In practice, the actual percentage based fees are calculated daily and will vary based on the account balance which also fluctuates daily.

An ongoing or fixed term adviser service fee may only be deducted from one specified fund.

Where you agree to pay an ongoing or fixed term adviser service fee this will continue to be deducted from your account until:

- the term of the arrangement ends and, if an ongoing fee arrangement, you do not renew your arrangement, or
- you or your adviser ask us to stop the fee arrangement.

We recommend speaking to your adviser before making changes to the ASF as this may affect the advice and services they provide to you.

Any ongoing or fixed term adviser service fee will be paid to the current adviser listed on your account. You can change your adviser or renegotiate your adviser service fee with your adviser at any time by providing a new written consent.

Your written consent to deduct the fees from your account

To set-up an adviser service fee on your account, we must be provided with a completed adviser service fee form. This form requires you to consent to the amount of the adviser service fee that is to be deducted from your account and to which adviser the fee is to be paid (through their dealer group).

The form also outlines the frequency, time and amount of any fees, a reasonable estimate of the fees you will pay in the next 12 months if it is not a set dollar fee and, for fixed term and one-off fees, the services to be provided by your adviser. In addition to the form provided to us, details of the adviser service fee must also be disclosed to you by your adviser in a Statement of Advice or other related advice documentation, such as a Record of Advice.

Where you do not consent to an ASF, your adviser can't arrange for it to be deducted from your account. Your consent for an ongoing adviser service fee must be renewed annually through your adviser. The fee arrangement will terminate on the 'end date' you and your adviser provide to us on an adviser service fee form, if you do not provide prior consent to renew the fee.

CFSIL sets guidelines for the amount of adviser service fees deemed reasonable to be released from your account based on your account balance. Where your fees are outside of these set guidelines they may be reduced or removed. We will notify you and your adviser if this occurs. You and your adviser may discuss an alternative means for payment.

You should discuss the services your adviser will provide to you as a result of the fees you pay. If you have any queries in relation to the advice or services received, your adviser is best placed to assist you with these.

If you want to know how much you are paying in fees to your adviser, you can visit FirstNet to view your transaction history. Alternatively, you can contact us or your adviser directly.

Additional information for indirect investors

If you are holding one or more of the funds via a platform product, the following information applies.

Commissions and other payments

Platform operators may receive remuneration from us to the extent that it is permitted under law. This remuneration will be paid out of the fees we derive from you that are indicated in the 'Fees and costs summary' table in a given year. If these amounts are paid, they are paid by us from our revenue and are not an extra amount paid from the fund, nor are they a further amount you pay.

Your adviser may also receive remuneration from the platform operator in a variety of ways for the provision of services. Details of this remuneration will be in the offer documents for the master trust or wrap account and the Financial Services Guide and Statement of Advice which your financial adviser must give you.

Differential fees

We may issue units to certain investors such as sophisticated, professional or wholesale investors with reduced management fees and costs. Such arrangements would be subject to individual negotiation, compliance with legal requirements and any applicable ASIC instruments.

How managed investment schemes are taxed

General taxation information has been provided for you in this PDS. However, because the Australian taxation system is complex and different investors have different circumstances, you should consider seeking professional taxation advice before investing in the funds.

CFSIL is also not a registered tax (financial) adviser under the Tax Agent Services Act 2009, and you should seek tax advice from a registered tax agent or a registered tax (financial) adviser if you intend to rely on this information to satisfy the liabilities or obligations or claim entitlements that arise, or could arise, under a taxation law.

You may be required to pay tax in relation to your investment in a fund (generally income or capital gains tax). However, you may be able to claim some tax credits or receive the advantage of some tax concessions.

Some tax information has been provided for you below. However, although every care is taken, it is never possible to rule out the risk that on a subsequent review, taxation liabilities of each fund could increase, or the benefit of concessions reduce.

Because investors can move into and out of a fund at different points in time, there is a risk that taxation liabilities in respect of gains that have benefited past investors may have to be met by subsequent investors.

This tax information is current as at December 2023.

The levels and basis of tax may change in the future. We, or your platform operator, will send you all the information you need each year for you to complete your tax return.

Attribution Managed Investment Trusts (AMITs)

The managed funds which you can invest in through your account are generally structured as Managed Investment Trusts (MIT).

Our eligible Managed Investment Trusts (MITs) have elected into a taxation regime called the Attribution Managed Investment Trust (AMIT) regime. A MIT that has elected into this regime is also referred to as an AMIT.

Under the AMIT regime, we will attribute income and tax offsets to you on a fair and reasonable basis. You will generally be assessed on this income and may be entitled to claim the tax offsets attributed to you.

The AMIT regime also provides you with the ability to adjust the cost base of your interest in the AMIT upwards or downwards where amounts attributed to you differ to the amounts that you have received as a cash distribution. This attribution information will be provided to you in an annual Tax Return Information Statement. This statement will detail member components of assessable income, capital gains, tax credits and other relevant information you should include in your tax return. If you are an indirect investor, your platform operator will provide you with this information. Refer to 'Accessing information on your account' for more details.

For more information, refer to the 'Modifications to the constitutions – AMIT' flyer at cfs.com.au/managed-investment-trust

Will you be liable to pay tax on income attributed to you from a fund?

You may be liable to pay tax on the income attributed, depending on your total level of taxable income and your income tax rate. This is the case whether the money is actually paid to you or reinvested. Any tax you pay depends on what makes up the attributed income.

Some types of attributed income are as follows:

- income (such as dividends and interest)
- net capital gains (from the sale of the fund's investments)
- tax credits (such as franking credits attached to dividend income and credits for tax paid on foreign income).

Your share of amounts attributed to you will be shown on your annual Tax Return Information Statement.

Will you be liable for tax when you switch or withdraw money from a fund?

You may, depending on your total level of taxable income and your income tax rate. Australian residents are generally subject to capital gains tax on gains when they switch or withdraw from a fund or transfer units to another person or entity. Depending on the type of taxpayer you are defined as and how long you have held your units, you may be entitled to a capital gains tax concession which can reduce the liability by up to 50% if you are an individual or trust, or 33.33% if the investment is held by a complying superannuation entity.

Quoting a Tax File Number (TFN) or an Australian Business Number (ABN)

Australian residents only

Under law (Taxation Administration Act 1953 (Cth)) we can collect your TFN. You are not required by law to quote your TFN. However, without your TFN or appropriate exemption information, we are required to withhold tax at the highest marginal tax rate (plus Medicare and other applicable levies) on income attributed to you. We will only use your TFN for lawful purposes (which are subject to legislative changes).

Non-residents

Non-residents may be subject to withholding tax on attributed income. The exact amount cannot be determined in advance because it varies depending upon the type of income. Generally, for the funds offered in this PDS, non-residents will not be subject to Australian tax on capital gains arising at redemption. However, non-residents seeking to invest should obtain tax advice on their specific circumstances.

Withholding

We may be required to withhold an amount from any payment to you to meet our obligations under foreign or domestic law, including those imposed pursuant to sections 1471 to 1474 of the United States Internal Revenue Code 1986 (FATCA).

Account management

Direct vs indirect investment in a fund

In this PDS, you will see references to direct and indirect investors.

Where you invest directly, you become a unitholder in the fund and you must complete the application form attached to or accompanied by either a paper or an electronic copy of the PDS.

You can also invest indirectly, via a platform such as a master trust, investor directed portfolio service or wrap account. Where you invest indirectly, the platform operator becomes a unitholder in the fund. Rather than receiving reports or other documentation relating to the fund directly from CFSIL, your platform operator will provide them. Matters relating to your investment in the fund (including how to invest, cooling off rights, complaints, etc.) should be directed to your platform operator.

The information in this section applies to direct investors in the funds.

If you are investing via a platform, contact the platform operator for the information relevant to you. Ensure you complete the documents which the platform operator requires for you to invest in or withdraw from a fund, or to cancel a request. The platform operator can also provide you with information about your investment in the funds.

The easiest way to monitor and transact on your account is to use our secure online portal, FirstNet.

Before transacting on your account, you should be aware of the following information. We also recommend you speak to your financial adviser to discuss your needs before making a transaction.

All transactions – A completed request (which includes a correctly completed form, together with any information we may ask for to establish your identity), received in our office on a NSW business day prior to 3pm (Sydney time), will be processed as at the date of receipt of the completed request.

Debit requests – A request to debit funds from your nominated account will be submitted to your bank on the day we process your transaction. We may not be able to process your transaction if prior transactions exist on the same day.

Regular investments – Unless a fund is suspended, restricted or unavailable, regular investments are accepted in accordance with the PDS current at the time of the relevant investment. A copy of the current PDS is available free of charge on request. We may terminate this facility if the direct debit fails three times in any 12-month period. Note that any changes to this facility must be received prior to the last business day prior to the 19th of the month for the change to take effect for that month.

Withdrawals – We reserve the right to delay a transaction where there may be a concern over its legitimacy or for the security of our investors. If a transaction is delayed, you will receive the unit price that applies on the day your request is processed.

How are your transactions processed?

Applications

In the event that certain information is not provided, the following will apply:

- If no fund or an invalid fund is selected for deducting the adviser service fee, we will deduct from the first fund invested in.
- Unless otherwise specified, additional deposits and applicable fees will be invested in line with your most recent transaction and/or a regular investment plan.

In certain situations, after receiving your application form (and related information) and application monies, we may not be able to proceed, for whatever reason, with your request, and issue the product immediately, until the required information is received. In these situations we shall:

- attempt to contact you and/or your financial adviser (if applicable)
- hold your application monies in a non-interest bearing account until we receive the required information.

Funds are held for a maximum period of 30 days (in a non-interest bearing account) commencing on the day we receive the funds. After this period your application monies will be returned to the source of payment.

At the time we process your application, your original application monies will be divided by the applicable unit price, to determine the number of units to be issued to you.

The unit price you receive is the unit price which applies on the day we receive your completed application, provided the request is received before 3pm (Sydney time) on any NSW business day. Completed applications received after 3pm will receive the following day's entry unit price. For funds received electronically, either by direct debit, EFT, BPAY or transfers from another institution, the unit price used will be the one effective the date the funds are received in our bank account.

In extraordinary circumstances, we may suspend or restrict applications and we may also reject applications at our discretion.

Switches

A switch is treated as a withdrawal from one fund and an investment into another. Funds are withdrawn at the exit unit price and the new units invested at the entry unit price. These two transactions are completed on the same business day, unless your switch is from or into a suspended, restricted or unavailable fund. In this case, your switch may not be processed and, if any payment is to be made, then the exit price used to calculate this payment will be the one determined at the time the payment is made.

If your switch request includes an investment into a suspended, restricted or unavailable fund, we will contact you to confirm your transaction.

When switching, you must ensure that you have a copy of the current PDS, which you should retain for future reference.

Switching may have capital gains tax implications.

Withdrawals

This is a complex area and has tax implications. If you need further explanation regarding any of the terms used in this section, you should discuss this with your financial adviser.

Withdrawals cannot be processed until application monies are cleared and all necessary documentation is provided.

We reserve the right to delay a transaction where there may be a concern over its legitimacy or for the security of our investors. If a transaction is delayed, you will receive the unit price that applies on the day your request is processed.

In the event that certain information is not provided, the following will apply:

- If no payment method is selected, a cheque will be provided.
- Payments can only be made to Australian financial institutions. Overseas accounts will not be accepted. If a request is made to transfer funds to an overseas account, a cheque will be provided.

When we receive your completed withdrawal request, together with any documentation that we may require to establish your identity, the proceeds are calculated at the next determined exit unit price. In extraordinary circumstances, we may suspend withdrawals.

Withdrawals are normally processed within seven working days of receiving a request from you. Longer periods may apply from time to time.

Unless the fund is suspended, restricted or unavailable, you can withdraw from the fund in accordance with our normal processes.

Where a fund is suspended, restricted or unavailable, we may not process withdrawal requests. Further, where a fund is not liquid, we cannot allow investors to withdraw from the fund unless we make an offer to withdraw. There is no obligation for us to make such an offer and if we do, investors may only be able to withdraw part of their investment. Any decisions whether to process withdrawals or partial withdrawals will be made in the best interests of investors as a whole, and if any payment is to be made, then the exit price used to calculate this payment will be the one determined at the time the payment is made.

Transaction cut-off times

If we receive your completed transaction request in our office before 3pm (Sydney time) on a NSW business day, we will process your transaction using that day's unit price.

If we receive your completed transaction request after the cut-off time shown above, we will process your transaction using the following business day's unit price.

Transaction processing and unit prices

We calculate unit prices each NSW business day. If your complete investment or withdrawal request is received by the relevant cut-off time, you will receive the next determined unit price.

The next determined unit price for any NSW business day is calculated at the close of trading of all markets on that day. Therefore, the next determined unit price is not known until the following business day. It is important to consider this when making your transaction request.

Note: If you ask for a unit price or investment valuation, we can provide a historical unit price or investment valuation only.

How are unit prices calculated?

When you invest, you are allocated a number of units in each fund you have selected. Each of these units represents an equal part of the market value of the portfolio of investments that the fund holds. As a result, each unit has a dollar value, or 'unit price'.

The unit price is calculated by taking the total market value of all of a fund's assets on a particular day, adjusting for any liabilities and then dividing the net fund value by the total number of units held by all investors on that day. Although your unit balance in the fund will stay constant (unless there is a transaction on your account), the unit price will change according to changes in the market value of the investment portfolio or the total number of units issued for the fund. We determine the market value of each fund based on the information we have most recently available.

We may exercise certain discretions that could affect the unit price of units on application or withdrawal in a fund. The types of discretions that we may exercise, in what circumstances, our policies on how we exercise the discretions and the reasons why we consider that our policies are reasonable, are set out in our Unit Pricing Permitted Discretions Policy. If we exercise a discretion in a way that departs from the policies set out in our Unit Pricing Permitted Discretions Policy, we are required to keep a record of this in a Register of Exceptions. You can obtain a copy of our Unit Pricing Permitted Discretions Policy or Register of Exceptions, or both, free of charge, by calling us on 13 13 36.

What is the difference between entry and exit unit prices?

There may be a difference between the entry and exit unit price for a fund quoted on any business day. This difference relates to the fund's buy/sell spread.

So existing investors do not continually bear the transaction costs resulting from new investments or withdrawals that you make, all investors pay a set, average amount (a 'buy/sell' spread) when they transact. This is calculated according to the particular types of investments a fund holds. Not all new investments or withdrawals cause transaction costs to be incurred by a fund; for example, where an investment does not incur any significant costs, or when a new investment coincides with a withdrawal by someone else. However, to be consistent, we generally apply buy/sell spreads to all new investments and withdrawals from a fund. Refer to the 'Fees and costs for each fund' for the buy/sell spreads that apply to each fund.

Unit pricing adjustment policy

There are a number of factors used to calculate unit prices. The key factors include asset valuations, liabilities, debtors, the number of units on issue and, where relevant, transaction costs. When the factors used to calculate the unit price are incorrect, an adjustment to the unit price may be required. We generally use a variance of 0.30% in the unit price before correcting the unit price.

If a unit pricing error is greater than or equal to this variance, we will:

- compensate your account balance if you have transacted on the incorrect unit price or make other adjustments as we may consider appropriate, or

- where your account is closed, we will send you a payment if the amount of the adjustment is more than $20.

These tolerance levels are consistent with regulatory practice guidelines and industry standards. In some cases, we may compensate where the unit pricing error is less than the tolerance levels.

Receiving income

Any income that you receive from your investment will be in the form of distributions. Your distribution may include income such as interest, dividends and realised capital gains.

Distributions are based on the number of units you hold in a particular fund, in proportion to the number of units held by all unitholders, at the distribution date. You must hold units on the day prior to any distributions being paid in order to be eligible for a distribution. Distributions are not pro-rated for investors who were not unitholders for the whole period. The type of income you receive depends on the asset classes in which each fund invests.

The funds usually distribute income quarterly (September, December, March and June).

We normally pay distributions within 14 days of the calculation date. The distribution calculation dates are available on cfs.com.au/distribution-amounts or by calling Investor Services on 13 13 36. In some circumstances, we may vary the distribution timing and frequency without notice to investors (for example, to take into account days that fall on a public holiday). While the funds aim to distribute at the frequency stated above, from time to time, individual funds may not have enough income to distribute each period.

What are your distribution choices?

You can choose to have your distributions:

- automatically reinvested, with no transaction costs payable. The additional units are purchased using the net asset value per unit applicable immediately after the distribution, or
- directly credited to your Australian financial institution account.

In extraordinary circumstances, where a fund is suspended, restricted, or unavailable, we may not permit some or all of the income distributions to be reinvested.

What happens if you invest just before a distribution?

Please note that the unit price of a fund will fall by the amount of any distribution immediately after the distribution is paid.

If you or your platform operator invest just prior to a distribution, then that distribution effectively represents a return of your investment.

Depending on your circumstances, this may have certain taxation implications and we recommend that you speak with a financial adviser or tax adviser to determine the impact of the distribution on your investment. Distribution dates should be checked prior to transacting on your account.

Other information you need to know

What is a Constitution?

Each fund is governed by a Constitution. Together with the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth) and some other laws, the Constitution sets out the terms and conditions under which the fund operates and the rights, responsibilities, powers, discretions and duties of the responsible entity and investors. The Constitution deals with a number of issues including:

- your rights as a holder of units
- the method of dealing with complaints about the fund
- fund termination
- our broad powers to invest, borrow, receive fees and other payments and generally manage the fund.

The Constitution states that your liability is limited to the amount you paid for your units, but the courts are yet to determine the effectiveness of provisions of this kind. It gives us a number of rights, including a number of discretions relating to unit pricing and fund termination. You can obtain a copy of the Constitution and Unit Pricing Permitted Discretions Policy, free of charge, by calling us on 13 13 36.

We may alter the Constitution if we, as the responsible entity, reasonably consider that the amendments will not adversely affect investors' rights. Otherwise, we must obtain investors' approval at a meeting of investors.

We may retire or be required to retire as the responsible entity (if investors vote for our removal).

Your rights to requisition, attend and vote at meetings are mainly contained in the Corporations Act.

Custody

A professional custodian generally holds the assets of each fund. The custodian is appointed by CFSIL and is responsible only to us. It is the custodian's role to hold the assets in the funds on behalf of investors (however, for funds where a prime broker has been appointed, assets will be held by the prime broker).

The custodian may be changed from time to time, and we may change the custodian where we are satisfied that the proposed new custodian meets all regulatory requirements.

You will not be notified of a change in custodian. If the custodian is another company in CFSIL and other CFS entities, then we would have to:

- satisfy ASIC that we are able to separate each fund's assets from our own, and
- satisfy ourselves that holding each fund's assets in this way would be cost-effective for investors.

If you would like details of our custodian, please contact us if you are a direct investor, or contact your platform operator if you are an indirect investor.

Eligibility of foreign investors

The offer made in this PDS:

- does not constitute an offer in any other country or jurisdiction including the European Union
- may, at the discretion of CFSIL, be made in New Zealand at a later date during the term of this PDS. If CFSIL elects to make the offer in New Zealand, it will be available only to persons who have received the relevant offer document in New Zealand and have completed the application form attached to that relevant offer document to make their initial investment. The offer will only be made in accordance with the terms of the trans-Tasman mutual recognition scheme which allows CFSIL to make the offer in New Zealand
- cannot be offered or sold within the US, or sold to, or for the account or benefit of, 'US Persons' (as defined in Regulation S of the US Securities Act 1933) in the United States
- cannot be offered or sold to European Union citizens residing in the European Union
- is not available to a Sovereign entity, or part of a Sovereign entity group, or a superannuation fund for foreign residents, as defined in the Income Tax Assessment Act 1997 (Cth).

Is there a cooling-off period?

A 14-day cooling-off period will apply to your initial investment in the funds in certain circumstances. If, during the 14-day cooling-off period, you decide that the investment does not meet your needs, then simply advise us, or if you are an indirect investor your platform operator, in writing.

The 14 days start when your transaction confirmation is received by you or if you are an indirect investor, your platform operator, or five days after your units are issued, whichever is earlier.

We will refund your investment, reduced or increased for market movements (and, where relevant, once we have established your identity). We will also deduct any tax or duty incurred and an amount for reasonable transaction and administration costs we incur in relation to your investment in a fund, including determining your application.

As a result, the amount returned to you may be less than your original investment.

Note: The cooling-off period will lapse if you transact on your account within 14 days. Under normal circumstances we will return your investment within seven working days of you, or the platform operator, notifying us (and, where relevant, once we have established your identity). For more information, please call Investor Services on 13 13 36.

Anti-Money Laundering and Counter-Terrorism Financing laws and Sanctions laws

We are required to comply with these laws, including the need to establish your identity (and, if relevant, the identity of other persons associated with your account) and accordingly hold such information. Instructions for completing the identification process are included with the application forms. Additionally, from time to time, we may require additional information to assist with this process and keep a record.

Where legally obliged to do so, we may disclose the information gathered about you to regulatory and/or law enforcement agencies, and we may not be able to tell you when this occurs. We may be unable to transact with you or other persons. This may include actions such as delaying, blocking, freezing or refusing to process a transaction, or ceasing to provide you with a product or service, if we have reasonable grounds to believe or suspect potential breaches of Australian and/or international laws or sanctions. This may impact on your investment and could result in a loss of income and principal invested. We will not incur any liability for any loss suffered if we are required to take one or more of these actions.

Can you appoint an agent?

Direct investors are entitled to appoint an agent to act on their behalf. This person could be your financial adviser, solicitor, or someone else that you trust to act on your behalf. We will only accept your appointment of an agent if, among other things, we have successfully established the identity of this agent. To do this you will need to complete an Appointment of Agent Form.

If you have more than one agent or signatory and you are a non-individual investor (e.g. a company, trust or other entity type), you can appoint a verifying officer to identify your agents or signatories. To appoint a verifying officer, you will need to complete the Verifying Officer Form. Copies of these forms can be obtained from our website or by calling 13 13 36.

Note that by appointing an agent to act on your behalf, you are giving that person full authority over your account.

Terms and conditions

These terms and conditions apply when you open an account with us and when you instruct us by phone, or electronically or when you access FirstNet. It is important that you read them carefully before you provide us with instructions so that you know what will apply to your transactions.

Limitation of liability

- All other representations and warranties relating to these services are excluded except for any term that is implied by law, which is taken to be included in these terms and conditions. To the extent permitted by law, our liability for breach of that term is limited to resupplying the service or paying the reasonable cost of having the service provided again. However, our liability may be greater where we are negligent or fraudulent, but this liability may be reduced to the extent that you caused or contributed to the loss.
- Subject to the paragraph above, to the extent permitted by law, we are not liable in any way for any losses that you suffer through using or supplying information electronically, by phone or FirstNet.
- You acknowledge and agree that we will not be liable to you for any loss you suffer (including consequential loss) caused by an inability to transact with you or other persons including where we comply with any law or legislation or choose to exercise a discretion available to us, including in circumstances where we reasonably believe that you are a Proscribed Person. 'Inability to transact' may include delaying, blocking, freezing or refusing to process a transaction or ceasing to provide you with a product or service. A 'Proscribed Person' means any person or entity who CFSIL or any other CFS entity reasonably believes to be (i) in breach of the laws of any jurisdiction prohibiting money laundering or terrorism financing, or (ii) on a list of persons with whom dealings are proscribed by Australian laws or the laws of another recognised jurisdiction. A 'Proscribed Person' includes any person or entity who CFSIL or any other CFS entity reasonably believes to act on behalf, or for the benefit of, a person or entity referred to in (i) and/or (ii).

- You agree to use these services only in accordance with these terms and conditions and your other legal obligations. We are not liable for, and you release and indemnify us against, any liabilities, claims, losses or costs arising from our acting in accordance with any communication that we receive by phone, or electronically about your account or investments with us or arising from the use of FirstNet by you or any person using your Member ID (OIN) and password.

Use of telephone and electronic communications

Security of phone and electronic requests

- We have procedures in place to reduce the risk of fraud, but we cannot guarantee that someone trying to impersonate you will not contact us about your account and change your details or make a withdrawal. We may dispute liability for any losses which happen because we have acted on instructions that you have not authorised but which appear to be authorised by you.
- All our customers are automatically given access to communicate with us by phone and electronically. You need to tell us if you do not want us to accept any future instructions over the phone or electronically by sending us an original signed request.
- We will block access to your account for phone and electronic instructions by the second business day after we receive that request. Until this happens, these terms and conditions for phone and electronic communications will still apply to your account.
- If you are a joint account holder, any of the joint account holders may give us instructions about the account.
- If the account holder is a company, any director of the company may give us instructions about the account, provided we have previously been notified in writing of the lists of directors.

Information received by phone or electronically

- If the details that we receive over the phone or electronically do not match the details that we have previously received for the account, then we will not proceed with the request.

- We also will not process a request if the instructions we receive are incomplete or illegible or appear to contain errors. This is to ensure that the transaction we perform is exactly what you were requesting.
- We can change or cancel these terms for phone and electronic communications at any time as long as we give you 14 days written notice.
- Apart from these terms and conditions, we may have other requirements for receiving instructions from time to time. You will be notified if this affects you or your request.
- If you do not accept changes to these terms, you may permanently stop instructing us by phone or electronically without fee or charge by providing us with an original signed request, as outlined under the heading 'Security of phone and electronic requests'.

Use of FirstNet

Member ID (OIN) and password

- You must keep your Member ID (OIN) and password secret. You should not disclose them to anyone or record them in a way which could affect their confidentiality.
- If you give someone else permission to use your Member ID (OIN) and password, you are responsible for any transactions they perform or changes they make to your account information, or anything that happens because you gave them that permission.
- Anyone can access FirstNet if they have a valid Member ID (OIN) and password. This means that if someone else has your Member ID (OIN) and password, they can access your account information and make transactions, even if you have not authorised them to use your Member ID (OIN) and password. We are not responsible to you and will not pay for any losses that may happen because we acted on any instructions received through FirstNet which used your Member ID (OIN) and password, whether or not these instructions were authorised by you.
- You must tell us immediately if you think that someone has accessed your account without your permission or if you think that someone else may know your Member ID (OIN) and password. We will stop access to the account and issue a new password.

Access to FirstNet

- You can tell us if you want to permanently stop using FirstNet by sending us an original signed request. We will block FirstNet access to your account on the second business day after we receive that request. Until this happens, these terms and conditions will still apply to your account.
- We will do our best to maintain the operation of this service in accordance with the information you have received about it. However, we may suspend or restrict your access to the service at any time including, but not limited to, in circumstances where we have reasonable certainty of unauthorised transactions or fraud.
- We do not guarantee or warrant that the use of FirstNet will be uninterrupted or error free. We also do not warrant that it is suitable for any particular purpose or has any performance, functionality or security features, except what we are legally obliged to provide.
- We will take all reasonable steps to make sure that the information that you access through FirstNet is up-to-date and correct.
- When you are joint account holders, and one of you registers for FirstNet transaction access, both of you are taken to have agreed to any transactions on your account through FirstNet.

Transacting on FirstNet

- 'Transaction access' means the ability to review, modify or update your contact details and accounts online; apply for, withdraw and switch units between funds or options and set up automatic facilities or features.
- You agree to use this service in accordance with these terms and conditions.
- We will only act on transaction requests that are complete and received in full, are legible and do not appear to contain any error.
- For FirstNet, a transaction reference onscreen is evidence that the communication has been completed.
- We are not liable for any losses or delays that occur because we did not receive an instruction.
- If there are any government fees and charges incurred by us in relation to your use of FirstNet, we can debit these from your account.
- You must only use FirstNet to obtain information that you are properly authorised to access and you must use this information only for lawful purposes.
- We can change these terms and conditions at any time by placing the changes on our website. When making any changes, we will act reasonably and, so far as possible, in accordance with prevailing market conditions and regulatory requirements for accounts of this type at that time. We may ask you to read and accept any amended terms and conditions so you can keep using FirstNet, but, unless otherwise required by law, once we have placed them on the website, they are binding on you, even if you have not read them. If you do not accept these changes, you may permanently stop using FirstNet without fee or charge by providing us with an original signed request, as outlined under the heading 'Access to FirstNet'.

We recommend that you check these terms and conditions on a regular basis. These terms and conditions include any instructions for using these services provided to you or placed on our website from time to time.
